1321st Reading: Jeremiah 1: 4-5, 17-19Gospel: Luke 4: 21-302nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12: 31 - 13: 13THE GREATEST GIFT IS LOVE

We are a people not only of faith and hope but especially of love. Love is the greatest gift that the Spirit gives to the members of Christ's Church. This gift is also given to those outside the Church, which is something for which we can thank God. Love breaks down human barriers and divisions. Love will bring about greater unity among Christians and thus a better witness to the Gospel if we are open to the Spirit.

Like Elijah and Elisha, Jesus is not sent to the Jews only.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For religious sisters and consecrated women

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

SHARING THE WORD

Gospel Reading. (Lk 4:21-30). This is a continuation of last Sunday's reading. In the course of his sermon in the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus had declared that Isaiah's messianic vision of pardon, healing, and liberation was being fulfilled among them. The people received the news with enthusiasm. But when he claimed to be the one to bring this about, their enthusiasm turned to scepticism. They saw him as just the son of Joseph, a local carpenter.

Trouble for him began when he told the people that the Gentiles would receive the same messianic blessings. He reminded them of Gentiles who had been helped by two of their greatest prophets, Elijah and Elisha. Upon hearing this the whole synagogue rose up against him. They had forgotten that from the beginning the Jews were called to be a light to the nations.

In the second reading of today, Paul is speaking about gifts and charisms. But he stresses the supreme importance of love. Love is the yardstick against which all the charisms must be measured.

MASS FOR THE ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR CONSECRATED LIFESATURDAY 5 FEBRUARY 2022 AT 12.30 PM

This special day of prayer was instituted by Pope John Paul II in 1997 to honour women and men in Religious Congregations - indeed all those who are living the Consecrated Life in the world - for their commitment and dedication to various ministries within the Church.

Since Pope John Paul II's pontificate, Pope Benedict and Pope Francis have continued to celebrate a special Mass in St Peter's each year on February 2nd to which all consecrated people are invited. This global celebration coincides with the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple when we honour Christ as the Light of the World and our special mission to spread His light in our world today.

Last year Archbishop John celebrated this Mass on 2nd February - albeit with only 12 persons in the Cathedral due to COVID restrictions - which was live-streamed so that our male and female religious and all consecrated persons could participate at the Mass in their own Chapels. He wishes to add this Mass to his annual calendar as a way of encouraging and thanking all Consecrated People in the Archdiocese for their response to God's call to serve Him in the Church here in Southwark. Unfortunately this year, due to Episcopal commitments beyond his control, he is unable to celebrate the Mass on February 2nd but all are invited to join him on Saturday 5th February at 12.30 pm in St George's Cathedral, either in person or online via live-stream. This year the theme will be the diversity and internationality of the Religious in our Archdiocese.

WORLD LEPROSY DAY SUNDAY 30 JANUARY 2022

World Leprosy Day is observed on the last Sunday of January every year to raise awareness of leprosy. This particular date was chosen as a tribute to the life of Mahatma Gandhi who had great compassion for people with leprosy, and who was assassinated on 30 January 1948.

This year, the St Francis Leprosy Guild are asking the Catholic community to reflect upon and pray for the work of the Catholic nuns who dedicate their lives to caring for people with leprosy.

The St Francis Leprosy Guild would be most grateful for both prayers and donations, with a view to defeating Leprosy for good: <https://stfrancisleprosy.enthuse.com/donate>
