HERE I AM, SEND ME

Jesus Christ calls his apostles. He transforms them from fisherman into “fishers of men”. We are all apostles and prophets to proclaim the saving power of God. Like Isaiah, we are touched with the burning fire of the Holy Spirit. When the Lord asks who will be his messenger, we reply: “Here I am, Lord, send me.”

They left everything and followed him.

The Holy Father’s Prayer Intention - For religious sisters and consecrated women

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

SHARING THE WORD

First Reading: (Isaiah 6: 1-8) This tells of the call of Isaiah to become a prophet. In a vision in the temple, God reveals himself to Isaiah as the all – holy One. Isaiah becomes aware of his own sinfulness. But then cleansed of his sin, he responds without hesitation to the divine call.

Second Reading: (1 Corinthians 15: 1-11) Paul defends the reality of the resurrection from the dead. He begins by appealing to the resurrection of Jesus and quotes an early creed. Paul does not attempt to describe the resurrection of Jesus because he was aware that this was happening beyond our experience.

Gospel: (Luke 5: 1-11) This is the story of the miraculous catch of fish and the call of the first disciples. The emphasis is on Peter. His companions remain in the background. Peter’s words, “we fished all night and caught nothing” underline the miraculous nature of the catch. Peter, moved by the miracle, sank to his knees and confessed his unworthiness to be associated with Jesus. But Jesus reassured him. “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people”. Peter and his companions then left everything and followed Jesus.

COFFEE MORNING COMES BACK

Weekly coffee/ social meetings will start after Mass, in the parish house, on Thursday 10th February. All are welcome. We are a synodal church called to Communion, Participation and Missio.

BE READY TO HELP STOP ASSISTED SUICIDE AMENDMENT

Right To Life UK has had a challenging and busy month, with the assisted suicide lobby attempting to hijack the Government's Health and Care Bill and force them to lay an assisted suicide bill before Parliament within a year of the Bill passing into law.

The Health and Care Bill will shortly move onto Report Stage where there is a high risk that Lord Forsyth will retable his amendment. As such, Right To Life UK is asking parishioners to sign up to their Action Alerts, so they can effectively participate in their efforts to stop this amendment passing, and others like it.

"We pray for all women going through unexpected pregnancies, that they would experience peace and support in their situations, and enjoy the many blessings that motherhood brings. Lord hear us"

You can do so by visiting the following link: www.righttolife.org.uk/#action-alerts

GRIEF IN LOSS, HOPE IN CHRIST
18 -20 MARCH 2022

The Marriage and Family Life Commission offer this weekend for those who have been bereaved. It takes place away from the pressures of day-to-day life, and its aim is to help those who have suffered the loss of a loved one to begin to come to terms with bereavement. It is a time for quiet, prayer, talking and acceptance.

Due to the special nature of this weekend retreat, which is held at Aylesford Friary, places are ordinarily limited and subject to a telephone call to determine if it is right the person enquiring. The next retreat will take place between 18th- 20th March 2022.
