Love your neighbour as yourself

God is as near to us as our own heart. If we wish to become like Christ then we will serve all people without distinction of race, colour, or creed. We will become reconcilers and love God with all our heart. In this way we will become the Good Samaritans of a wounded world.

Who is my neighbour?

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For the elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Mass Times, Intentions & Feast Days		Sharing the Word
Sat 09 18:30	First Mass of Sunday Christine Fernando RIP	First Reading: (Deuteronomy 30: 10-14) This is part of Moses' farewell speech to the Israelites. He exhorts them to commit themselves to the Lord by observing his commandments. Previously these commandments were considered as being external to them, now they are presented as springing from within themselves. They are written in their hearts, and therefore are not far away from them or beyond their strength. In today's gospel these commandments are reduced to two. Second Reading: (Colossians 1:15-20) This letter firmly asserts the absolute supremacy of Christ. He is the beginning and the end of creation, the head of the Church which is his Body, the mediator and the redeemer. Gospel: (Luke 10: 25-37) This is the parable of the Good Samaritan. The lawyer wanted to embarrass Jesus by asking the question: "Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" But Jesus put the question back to him when he said, "what do you read in the law?" And the lawyer tries again and this time by seeking to know to whom the commandment, 'love your neighbour' applies. At the end Jesus got the lawyer to answer his own question. In Leviticus, the commandment, 'You must love your neighbour as yourself' is restricted to fellow Israelites. Jesus broadened it to include everyone, Jews and Gentiles, friends and enemies. Our neighbour is anyone, regardless of class, colour, race, or creed, who needs our help.

Sea Sunday 10th July

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure on board. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health. Sea Sunday is 10th July. It is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea, your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church. You can also donate by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work. Thank you.
