God is our Father

Jesus teaches us to call God "Father" when we pray. Through baptism we are made one with Christ; we too are children of God. We are taught to persist in our prayers, assured that God will answer us because he is our Father. Jesus tells us to ask until we receive and to seek until we find.

Ask, and it will be given to you.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For the elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Sharing the Word

First Reading (Genesis 18:20-32)

Abraham intercedes with God on behalf of Sodom, a city full of evil. He worried that the innocent may be punished together with the guilty and so he bargains with God. The implication given in the reading is that if there was one just person in the city, God would spare it. The story highlights the importance of the prayers of intercession and it also reveals God's mercy.

Second Reading (Colossians 2:12-14)

Through baptism we are integrated into Christ's death and resurrection. We die to the old way of life, and we rise to a new way of life.

Gospel (Luke 11:1-13)

The Lord's prayer according to Luke has five petitions. The first two petitions express the desire for the eschatological realisation of the kingdom of God. The other three are concerned with our temporal and spiritual needs, namely daily sustenance, forgiveness of our sins and victory over temptation. To illustrate the nature of prayer, Jesus tells the story of a tired and hungry traveller who shows up at an odd hour to borrow some food. And so the disciple must pray with persistence and confidence.

Children's Liturgy

We intend to restart the children's liturgy. Two members of the parish have offered to lead the children during their liturgy. But we need more people to help with this ministry. And so if anybody is interested and willing to help our children they should let me know as soon as possible. Any volunteers will need to be DBS checked and this could be done between now and September.

SUPPORT FOR UKRAINE

The Crisis in Ukraine is continuing. We have been praying for peace in Ukraine. Now we would like to organize a collection to support the refugees from Ukraine. And so over the weekend of 30th/31st July our second collection will be for the support of the refugees from Ukraine.

CAFOD

Did you know that CAFOD, the Catholic Agency for Overseas Development, helps some of the poorest and most marginalised people across the world? We can reach so many people because we are a member of Caritas Internationalis, the Catholic Church network with a presence in 165 countries. Our local experts work with people over the long-term, helping them to have the right skills, tools and opportunities to live with dignity and support their families. For example, in South Sudan we are helping families learn how to farm better as the climate gets hotter, so that they can cope better in the future when things get even more difficult. Thank you for your support.

Celeste and Sarah, CAFOD Community Participation Coordinators in Southwark.
