Be ready

Jesus teaches us to be ready when the Lord comes to call us to our heavenly home. A good life is the best preparation we can make. We will enter into a kingdom promised to us by our heavenly Father, who through his own kindness and generosity has chosen us as his own.

You too must stand ready.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For small businesses

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Sharing the Word

First Reading (Wisdom 18:6-9)

This reading recounts God's actions on behalf of Israel during the Exodus from Egypt. The Israelites benefited from the very things by which the Egyptians were punished. And so there is a historical basis for trust in God.

Second Reading (Hebrews 11: 1-2,8-19)

This reading extols various figures in the history of Israel, but especially Abraham, as examples of faith. Faith is a guarantee of the unseen realities. Abraham's journey is type of our journey towards the promised land of heaven.

Gospel (Luke 12:323-48)

We must be ready for the return of the Lord. As disciples we may be the little flock in a hostile world, we must not be discouraged, but we must look with confidence to the Father who has chosen us for his kingdom. The three parables relate to the coming of Jesus. Since we do not know the exact hour of his return, we must maintain a constant watchfulness and faithfulness.

Children's Liturgy

We intend to restart the children's liturgy. Two members of the parish have offered to lead the children during their liturgy. But we need more people to help with this ministry. And so if anybody is interested and willing to help our children they should let me know as soon as possible. Any volunteers will need to be DBS checked and this could be done between now and September.

Grief in Loss, Hope in Christ
