Rich and Poor

Jesus teaches about the dangers of inequality in the distribution of wealth. The rich man will be punished in the next life because of his indifference to the poor man who lay hungry at the gate of his house. Luxury and holiness are rarely found together. We are called to share our goods, just as we are called to share our faith in Christ with others through the way in which we

Good things come your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while your are in agony.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For the abolition of the death penalty

We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

Mass Times, Intentions & Feast Days		Sharing the Word
Sat 24	First Mass of Sunday	First Reading - Amos was the prophet of social justice. He spoke to the complacent wealthy of both Judah and Israel, who were unconcerned about what was happening in the country which was about to be destroyed by the Assyrians. The rich did not have the slightest concern for the plight of the poor. Amos warned them that they would be the first to be led off into exile. Second Reading - At baptism the Christian makes his profession of faith, in imitation of Christ who, before Pilate, spoke up for the truth. As Jesus was faithful to his call in face of a hostility that led to his death, so Christians facing persecution, and who live in hope of the appearing of the Lord, should be faithful. Gospel - The parable does not suggest that the rich man's wealth was ill-gotten. In the same way the parable does not say anywhere that Lazarus was a victim of his oppression. The rich man's sin consists in the fact that cushioned by a lavish life-style, he was oblivious to the presence of a poor man at his gate. This parable is about the responsibility of wealth. Lazarus was rewarded not for his poverty but because God is the vindicator of the poor.

When there are many hands, the work becomes easy and enjoyable.
