Salt of the earth and light of the world

Jesus call us to be the salt of the earth, and gives us the example to follow in his own life and death. We are also called to be, through out good works, a light shining in the darkness so that others may be guided on their journey to God.

You are the light of the world.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention - For parishes

We pray that parishes, placing communion at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

He tells the people that true fasting (and therefore true religion) is necessarily linked with the practice of justice and with concern for the poor and the needy. The lives of those who follow this way will become luminous and their "integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you". Second Reading: Paul is at pains to convince the Corinthians that their fascination with worldly wisdom and rhetorical skills can only weaken their faith. He points to himself as an example. When he brought the Gospel to them, he did not rely on human cleverness. He came in weakness, preaching a crucified (and risen) Christ, to show that their faith does not depend on human cleverness but on the power of God. Gospel: Jesus shares with his disciples the work of enlightening and guiding a morally confused humanity. Salt and light are powerful images. In all human cultures salt has been used to preserve and to season food. And so Christians are called to bear witness to Christ before unbelievers through their good deeds. And when disciples stop witnessing through their deeds, they |

Communion Hymn

1. Lord, we pray for golden peace,
peace all over the land, may people dwell in liberty,
all walking hand in hand.

*Banish fear and ignorance, hunger, thirst and pain.
Banish hate and poverty, let no-one live in vain,
let no-one live in vain.*
2. Keep us all for ever one, one in love and in grace.
And wipe away all war and strife,
give freedom to each race.
3. Let your justice reign supreme.
Righteousness always done.
Let goodness rule the hearts of all and evil overcome.
